

Commercial Litigation

If your company is facing a lawsuit, you want a legal team with experience in defending corporations in litigation. HSB is with you every step of the way — from the boardroom to the courtroom.

Commercial litigation attorneys help businesses and individuals prosecute and defend claims brought by and against the government, competitors, employees, shareholders, customers and the public. Typical matters include breach of contract claims, breach of fiduciary duty claims, antitrust suits, property and title disputes, trade secrets and class action lawsuits.
