

Real Estate

As individuals more frequently buy and sell real estate without the help of a broker, the Real Estate practice area has become more important. Real estate attorneys represent individuals at all phases of real estate transactions, from developers and investors to buyers and sellers. Cases might involve representing borrowers and lenders in financing, structuring a purchase or sale, assessing tax consequences of a transaction and other related matters.

Our Real Estate Attorneys

Christian Dennie

Anthony Lowenberg

Tanya Greene Wallace

Charlie Reed

HSB real estate attorneys represent developers, investors, management companies and tenants. You can count on us to efficiently maneuver property matters and advise you in the purchase, sale, lease, construction and financing of real estate projects. Your interests are our priority.

