

Workers' Compensation

The Workers' Compensation Practice Group is a vital part of HSB's labor and employment law practice. If you are faced with workers' compensation claims, we can help. We will work with you to develop the most effective strategy and gather evidence for the strongest case possible. We also will work closely with the administrators and service companies involved in your claim to present a united front in defending your claim.

Workers' compensation law deals not only with workers' comp claims, but also organizing and administering self-insured programs. Typical cases may involve the Americans with Disabilities Act, family and medical leave, safety issues and more.

HSB's workers' compensation attorneys know how to approach claims in the context of your employment environment and industry. We offer statewide representation in district courts and Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation field offices. We also represent non-subscriber employers who do not have workers' compensation insurance or occupational accident plans.
